WHAT CIRCUSNEXT SEARCHES FOR

circusnext is a space for artistic risk-taking, research and experimentation.

Any artist who wishes to develop a circus creation in progress can apply (only acts are not allowed).

There is no defined type of circus creation to apply for, all creative contexts, all types of forms, formats, durations, aesthetics, universes, themes, audiences, all circus disciplines and all interdisciplinary endeavours between circus and other art forms are welcome.

Our aim is to identify and support the most innovative and bold emerging circus authors who wish to develop a circus project at European level, who dare to experiment and push boundaries.

We understand "author" as authorship, an artist who has authority over their work and is in the process of finding their "artistic signature", the ability to define their artistic position.

Emergence is understood as a level of professional recognition and should not be confused with youth: there is no age limit for applicants.

To select the project, the juries will consider the following criteria:

- Originality of the project: it could be a new approach to circus techniques, an original research process, the construction of an unseen artistic universe, etc.
- Authorship: the ability to defend one's work and artistic choices, the ability to position oneself and one's work in the field of circus art, the need to create, etc.
- Coherence and relevance: between one's artistic intentions and the way the project is structured, thought, how the elements that compose it are arranged, etc.
- Quality of the performance: quality of movement, rhythm, stage presence, i.e. the ability to make the intentions of the proposal tangible on stage, etc.

For further insights, read the artistic jury's statement here.

Please note that the definitions of the criteria are not limited to the explanations above which are here only for a better understanding.

IS MY PROJECT ELIGIBLE FOR CIRCUSNEXT?

a) Who can apply

- Emerging circus authors (see definition below) as individuals or company
- No age limit (min. 18-years old)
- No circus degree required
- You should not be studying in a circus school when the support starts (August 2024)
- No previous circusnext shortlisted/Finalists or Laureates
- Resident in a Europe Creative country (see list below)

N.B: circusnext applies a non-discrimination policy.

A legal structure is required when applying and must be based in a Europe Creative country. You may be self-employed; in this case an official registration number is requested.

List of eligible countries

The project is co-funded by the program Europe Creative of the European Union. Therefore, only the applicants from these countries are eligible (residence and legal structure) :

- European Union: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland (Republic of), Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, The Netherlands
- Other countries participating in the Creative Europe programme: Albania, Armenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Georgia, Iceland, Kosovo, Liechtenstein, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Norway, Serbia, Tunisia, Turkey, Ukraine

b) Who is considered emergent circusnext and its partners evaluate the emergence in relation to each national context.

It is a question of professional recognition at a European level, not of age.

Evaluation of emergence is based on the following:

- 1 - Number of previous professional creations as an author

You can apply with:

- your 1st or 2nd creation as author in France, Belgium, the Netherlands
- your 3rd creation in all other eligible European countries

N.B: self-produced creations do not count.

- 2 - Visibility: have your previous creations (as author/s) toured significantly at European/international level?
- 3 - Financial support: have your previous creations (as author/s) received important creation subsidy from a public body?

N.B: Emergence criteria apply to all artists considered as authors of the creation project, but it does not apply to performers. Collectives including an author who is non-emerging, are ineligible.

A non-emerging outside eye who holds in fact the position of co-creator makes the project ineligible.

c) What projects?

- all circus creations in progress except acts, from any circus discipline(s) are admissible
- You can apply as an author only with one creation project per edition
- You can re-apply with the same project only if your project was not selected as Finalist or Laureate in a previous edition

d) Where can one apply?

- online at circusnext.eu
- in the country where your production is based (legal structure is based)

e) Calendar requirement for 2025

Applicants should be available to present work-in-progress presentations on stage in Paris:

- 11 to 18 May 2025: Selection of Laureates (presentations 14 & 15 May)
- 12 & 13 June 2025: circusnext Revelations event

The premiere of the project should not take place before the Revelations event (12 & 13 June 2025).
